

ARCO & AIRE:

CONTEMPORARY TANGO MUSIC

For the past seven years, Heyni Solera and Maxfield Wollam-Fisher have been actively working together in bringing live tango music to the Washington D.C. area through their performances with Da Capo Tango. Their collaboration led to their unique instrumentation as a cello/bandoneon duo. This dynamic duo focuses on playing tangos not commonly played on the dance floor and tangos written by composers who are alive today. Their mission is to foster a sense of community and collaboration between tango musicians, organizers, and dancers. They also provide outreach to new audiences that may not be aware of tango's resurgence by working with directors and artists from other genres. In 2021, Arco & Aire released their first EP, Overture, whose track, "La Bordona" won the Best Latin Song for the 2022 Wammie Awards. In July of 2022, they will record their first album in Buenos Aires.
