

ARCO & AIRE:

CONTEMPORARY TANGO MUSIC

For over a decade, Heyni Solera and Maxfield Wollam-Fisher have been actively working together in bringing live tango music to Washington D.C. Their collaboration led to the formation of the unique instrumentation of a cello/bandoneon duo that focuses on playing tangos not commonly played on the dance floor, and tangos written by composers who are alive today. Their mission is to foster a sense of community and collaboration between tango musicians, organizers, and dancers. They also provide outreach to new audiences that may not be aware of tango's resurgence by working with directors and artists from other genres. In July of 2024, they released their first full length album Una Noche Entre Sueños, which consists of original tangos composed specifically for the duo by some of today's leading tango composers. Their first EP, Overture, whose track, "La Bordona" won the Best Latin Song for the 2022 Wammie Awards.
